

INVISIBLE NO MORE

5,712 Native women were reported murdered or missing in 2016
 Now we've lost count

MMIW-GIC.COM
#SOMEBODYS DAUGHTER

There is a nationwide crisis of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. Indigenous women are more likely to go missing or be murdered than any other ethnicity. Because the population of Indigenous people is small (making up 2% of the population), it is not reported on a lot. However, more than four out of five American Indian and Alaska Native women have experienced violence in their life.

JOIN US ON WEDNESDAY
 MARCH 16 5:00-7:00

For Sisters Rising
 A MMIW documentary
 and discussion

Register for ZOOM:
<https://tinyurl.com/2p8mvwte>

MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN #MMIWG

Stolen Sisters

Please join us during International Women’s Month as we bring awareness to the epidemic of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. Disembodied red dresses are symbols for these missing women, and the posters will provide more information. You can leave your own message on a red dress.

Co-sponsored by Native American and Indigenous Studies, American Studies, Canadian Studies, and Women and Gender Studies.

March 14-18, 2022
RSU Summer St Lobby

